Scholarship Programme for theoretical and practical training in languages – 2017

Edital/Call – 595/2016

The USP International Cooperation Office announces the opening of up to 10 positions in the Scholarship Programme for theoretical and practical training in languages, presented to graduate students of foreign institutions with a current agreement with University of São Paulo, as a part of their educational background and teaching experience in tutoring English as a foreign language (TEFL), within the Language Education Programme at USP, in 2017 (February - November), as required. The Language Education Programme consists in the offering of a classroom course in English, free of charge, focusing on preparing undergraduate students at USP for proficiency exams in English and extracurricular activities for the preparation of materials and meetings.

1. ON THE TIME AND COMMITMENT TO THE PROGRAMME

- 3 hours of training and groundwork, with the Programme Coordination on the São Paulo campus, previously to the beginning of practical activities per module;
- 1 or 2 modules for 2 classes, which includes practical activities of 35 hours each, made up of 5 hours a week in class, on the countryside campuses or the São Paulo campus, two times a week, from Monday to Thursday, on days and schedules settled with the Programme Coordination;
- 14 hours, made up of 2 hours a week, of planning and revision of teaching material per module;
- 3 hours of attendance at the meetings with the Coordination and workshops on the São Paulo campus per module.
- 5 hours of virtual meetings with the Coordination/co-supervisor per module.

2. ON THE ACTIVITIES

- To acknowledge the teaching material employed by the programme, and to develop additional materials and activities of English teaching, according to the programme's objectives;
- To accomplish practical activities, on two classrooms per module, each one with a minimum of 10 and a maximum number of 22 students, previously defined by the Programme Coordination;
- To attend planning and following meetings with the Coordination on the São Paulo campus;
- The fellows who were already granted in previous editions of the programme will collaborate on the training and will share the assembled material with the new participants;
- To participate in research workshops organized by the Programme Coordination;
- To oversee the class attendance, to evaluate the students and to make an activities report.

3. ON THE STAGES OF THE PROCESS
